

I do not want the existing Indiana law weakened in any way. Actually, I would like it extended because I still get unwanted calls, from charity groups and local police groups. Do not allow the Consumer Bankers Association to impede my rights to not want them to have access to call me. Sincerely, Adam Bartlett